

Wanderers can go to the top

WYCOMBE WANDERERS have a great chance to go to the top of the Premier Midweek Floodlight League table tonight (Tuesday) when they entertain local rivals Marlow at Loakes Park.

Marlow, at present without a permanent manager since the resignation of Mike Hall, have named a squad of 16 players under caretaker manager Dave Wigley. They are: Scary, Johnson, McKeown, Thomas, Stone, Faulkner, Woolley, Stonell, Page, Murphy, Richardson, Bebb, Reid, Reyner, Rand and Junger.

Although held to a 1-1 draw at Aylesbury on Saturday, Marlow have returned some useful results in the Floodlight League this season and at present occupy second place in the table.

Wanderers have only one doubt, Alan Gane, who has a back injury. Keith Jameson is now fit and could well return in midfield, where Wycombe made little impression in their 0-0 draw at home to Ilford on Saturday.

Recent signings from Maidenhead (where Mike Hall is now manager), Brian Langfield and Peter Spittle, are likely to come in for their second games, having played in the 4-0 defeat of Chesham last Tuesday.

Wycombe will be anxious not only to improve on their forward line but also to re-capture the bite in midfield. Victory, could put them on top on goal average over Wokingham, who have a tough trip to Banbury.
